

H3 What's the problem?

1.1 The basic economic problem

The world's supply of fresh water is running out. Already one person in five has no access to safe drinking water.

Shortage of homes over next 20 years threatens deepening housing crisis

The UK is facing a shortage of IT workers, as demand for employees outstrips supply for the first time in two years, according to e-skills UK.

World Paper Shortage Leads to Increased Prices

Labour shortages threaten Uruguay's prosperity

Global copper supply shortage remains

India v England: ticket shortage for key Cricket World Cup match sees angry fans clash with police

UN warns of a shortage of rare metals used for green technologies including solar panels, electric cars and energy efficient lights.

Bangladesh will soon have to face a severe shortage of arable land which is being depleted by increasing human settlement every year.